

Dr Rishi Sud

Dr Rishi Sud MBBS, FRACP is a Consultant Gastroenterologist at Tuggerah Lakes Private Hospital and Gosford Private Hospital. He is also a Staff Specialist at Gosford Hospital and Wyong Hospital, Director of Physician Education at Gosford Hospital, and Conjoint Lecturer at the University of Newcastle.

After graduating from Western Sydney University, Dr Sud completed his Residency at Westmead Hospital, Physician Training at Concord Hospital, and Gastroenterology Training at St George Hospital and Gosford Hospital.

Dr Sud enjoys consulting in all areas of Gastroenterology and has a special interest in bowel cancer surveillance and inflammatory bowel disease. He is passionate about providing excellent, evidence-based patient care in a friendly and empathic manner.

He is accredited for gastroscopy and colonoscopy by the Conjoint Committee for the Recognition of Training in Gastrointestinal Endoscopy. He has published several papers across different areas of Gastroenterology in recent years. Dr Sud is also actively involved in the supervision and mentoring of Physician trainees.

He assesses all referrals and if appropriate, patients are given the option of proceeding directly to their endoscopic procedures at Tuggerah Lakes Private Hospital or Gosford Private Hospital to expedite their care. Dr Sud and his anaesthetist are no-gap providers.
