

Dr Jini
Mandapati

Dr Jini Mandapati, filled a much needed gap on the Central Coast by being the first female Obstetrician and Gynaecologist since the 1990's to start her private practice.

Dr Mandapati provides unique one-on-one care in all aspects of obstetrics and gynaecology through her warm and reassuring approach tailored to your individual circumstances.

Dr Mandapati is a fully qualified obstetrician with over 20 years' experience in managing pregnancies and delivering babies for women who have straight forward or complicated pregnancies. Dr Mandapati is happy to work with you in meeting any requests and discussing any particular issues concerning your pregnancy to ensure the safety and happiness of you, your partner and your child.

Dr Mandapati also provides a highly specialised approach to women's health and gynaecological concerns spanning from simple family planning issues, abnormal pap smears, menorrhagia (heavy periods) to more complex issues such as prolapse, incontinence or pelvic masses.

Dr Mandapati's work experience has include:
